Social Media Etiquette Checklist

Responsible Social Media Use

Social media is an important part of student life, but it should be used carefully and responsibly. The following checklist highlights some important do's and don'ts.

Do's

- Think before posting anything online
- Use respectful and polite language
- Verify information before sharing it
- Keep personal information private
- Maintain a positive and professional profile
- Respect other people's opinions
- Give proper credit when using someone's content

- Use privacy settings properly

✗ Don'ts

- Do not share fake news or unverified information
- Do not post offensive or harmful content
- Do not bully, troll, or harass others online
- Do not overshare personal details
- Do not post when angry or emotional
- Do not use weak passwords
- Do not misuse someone's photos or personal content
- Do not engage in online arguments unnecessarily

Conclusion

Responsible social media use is a major part of digital literacy. It helps students maintain a good online image and ensures safe and respectful interaction in digital spaces.
